

OPEN MEETING

FILM SCREENING & PANEL DISCUSSION

of a new film from TalkWorks

In which leading policy-makers and experts talk about why they support the US-led initiative for a nuclear weapon-free world

Monday 21st June 2010

The Auditorium at St. John's College, Oxford
5.30 - 7.30 pm

EXPERT PANEL

(Associate Editor of & contributor to the Oxford International Encyclopedia of Peace)

John Gittings

*former chief foreign leader writer
for The Guardian*

Elahe Mohtasham

analyst of Iran & North Korea's nuclear programmes

will speak and answer questions on:

'Outcomes of the May 2010 NPT Review Conference - What hope for the goal of 'Global Zero' nuclear weapons?'

All are welcome

Phone: 01608 643967 or email rosie.houldsworth@talkworks.info for more information

Peaceroots

Registered charity number 1114102

in association with

OXFORD PUGWASH

pugwash-oxford.evts.info

Peaceroots is an Oxfordshire-based charity that supports people in conflict or post-conflict areas who are seeking non-violent solutions, and promotes awareness of effective alternatives to military action.